Bound By Flames: Night Prince, Book 3

Synopsis

The climactic third novel in New York Times best-selling author Jeaniene Frost's Night Prince series finds Vlad and his newly turned bride, Leila, at odds with each other - and vulnerable to the one vampire powerful enough to end the Dark Prince's reign... Play with fire, pay the price Leila's years on the carnie circuit were certainly an education. What she didn't learn: how to be a vampire, or how to be married to the most famous vampire of them all. Adjusting to both has Leila teetering on a knife edge between passion and peril, and now the real danger is about to begin... Vlad must battle with a centuries-old enemy whose reach stretches across continents and whose strength equals his own. It isn't like Vlad to feel fear, but he does... for Leila, because his enemy knows she is Vlad's greatest weakness. As friend and foe alike align against him - and his overprotectiveness drives Leila away - Vlad's love for his new bride could be the very thing that dooms them both...

I loved the first two books in the series but feel let down by Bound by Flames. It still had sexy Vlad and sassy Leila as the positive. What didn't work for me was that this book was very "Vampireish" and was a whole lot of mystery and adventure versus romance. I know it's a book about Vlad the ultimate vampire but the first two books had more of a human story line and romance. It must be very tough for a writer to continue a storyline once the human has "changed" because I have not seen it done well and that unfortunate trend continues here. The majority of the story was about Vlad's enemies getting to him through Leila. How many times does this girl need to shot at, kidnapped, killed...? Is all that vampires do is try to kill each other? I would like to see some new developments for me to continue with the series. Vlad and Leila's romance was different, more seasoned and loving. I did miss the more unpredictable chemistry and romance from before though.

~ 4.5 Bound by Flames Stars ~Bound by Flames is book three in the Night Prince series by Jeaniene Frost. Amazing! Jaw-Dropping! Astonishing!Vlad and Layla are trying to make their marriage stronger when an old enemy of Vlad's comes calling, bringing tension and issues to the forefront.I love Vlad! Yummy! Yummy Vlad! Layla is as kick-ass as ever. This was a fabulous read in the series. Giving us an action packed adventure full of suspense, twists, surprises, and much much more. So much happens good and bad in this installment. Bound by Flames was excellent, but it was also dark!! The author rocked the dark and we are reminded of that fact with a vengeance. Graphic torture, skinning, rape, arms torn off and much more.The balance of power in Vlad and Leila's relationship has been one-sided, up until now. Leila new going into this marriage, with one of the most powerful vampires, would be a challenge. The personal growth these two go through was significant. We get to see Vlad's vulnerable side; while Leila shows us how strong and resilient she can be. The author did a fantastic job pulling out all the stops and of course she didn't hold back on the ravishing parts either. I loved seeing other characters make appearances. Mencheres pops in and Cat and Bones had a cameo, although I will point out that their part is somewhat spoiler-ish if you haven't read Up From the Grave. It's fantastic for all those fans who love all things Night World. Bound in Flames was so spectacular, full of emotion, action, and excitement. I couldn't get enough and devoured the book. I can't wait for the last book.

I've had this on my TBR list for awhile and had totally forgotten about it. It just popped up to the top of my kindle and I was like "oh yeah, I gotta read this one!" So glad I finally did. I forgot how much I enjoyed this couple, and this part of their story was scary!!!! Leila is the bravest, strongest, most charismatic character I've run across. I can't believe I waited this long to read this story. Vlad knows no bounds when it comes to his love and protectiveness of Leila. That's why his enemies continue to seek them out. At least imho. There is danger everywhere and in strong abundance in this 3rd of the series..... but a strong couple makes a strong bond.

I really wish that Vlad and Leila's series only took up one book instead of the three. I loved Vlad in the original Night Huntress series but his own stories seemed to have lacked something. He doesn't play off Leila as well as some of the other characters in the series and that made this side series my least favorite. Part of the problem is that I don't really like Leila very much. She is so unsure of herself and insecure in a lot of ways. It makes her a little difficult to relate to. In this installment something horrific happens to her and she completely frets over how Vlad might respond to it that she over angst something that ends up being a complete fizzle. This installment of the series probably has the most compelling story line of the three with appearances by Mencharies, Cat, Bones and Marie Laveau as well as former Vlad bff Maximus but there were a few brutal things that happened that were actually a bit too much for me. I'm not a big fan of using rape or threat of rape to build tension and there were chapters where this was the case making my enjoyment of the story a little less. While I appreciate how that whole thing resolved itself Leila's entire abduction made me a little queasy. If you've already read the other two books in Vlad's series then you might as well finish it out. If you haven't started Vlad's spin off yet then it is just okay I'd probably just do a reread of the Night Huntress series instead. Best Book moment was at the end with Vlad's true confession to Leila about the Dracula myths. I laughed for a good bit over that. The worst book moment involved duct tape and a video camera.
