Die By The Gun

Synopsis

Introducing 'One Eye Dillon' After witnessing a robbery on the docks, young orphan Wade is rescued from thugs by Buffalo Allen and Two-Toes Wilson, mountain men in town to sell their furs. Wade and his street urchin friend, Zachariah, both jump at the chance to leave town and travel to the mountains to learn how to become trappers. They have many lessons to learn to be able to survive in the wilds of the Rockies, ...and before the winter comes. But the freedom of mountain man life is packed with dangers; wild animals, marauding Indians, and dock scum from St. Louis sent to make sure the boy's don't rat out the criminals that control the cities criminal gangs. Mountain man story fans will relish this tale of adventure, hardship, and friendship. Another winner from W.R. Benton!

Customer Reviews

Really liked the new characters. The story moved fast with plenty of action. A true Benton novel, who is a master story teller.

This is one of the best stories that I've read by W. R. Benton. The storyline will keep you turning the pages.

Good reading

W. R. Benton does it again. While reading his story, it's like you are watching it. He just draws you into the story. I love these mountain man books. I really look forward to his new books. Thank you Mr. Benton for a awesome read.
