The Christian Story: Five Asian Artists Today

Synopsis

This colourful catalogue features paintings and statements by five leading contemporary Asian artists, Sawai Chinnawong (Thailand), He Qi (China), Nalini Jayasuriya (Sri Lanka), Nyoman Darsane (Bali) and Wisnu Sasongko (Thailand), which highlight the very different ways artists of diverse cultures today perceive Biblical tales. Over 40 new paintings are explored showing how the Judeo-Christian narrative has been adapted for both western and indigenous audiences. Though greatly influenced by regional and cultural traditions, many of these artists have also been exposed to western Judeo-Christian teachings, and it is this mixture of influences which is so striking in their work. The book considers the importance of these works to the development and exportation of Asian Biblical Art to the West and its reception, audience and patronage.

Customer Reviews

“A book to enhance the library of anyone interested in the subtle fruits of the indigenization of the Gospel at both the sponsoring and receiving ends of the missionary enterprise. I would highly recommend it to students and teachers of mission, contextual theology, Christianity in Asia, and Asian art as a valuable, eye-opening and thought-provoking resource”

One of the foremost books on Christian Asian Art in print. While the essays need a critical critique do to their Western perspective, the book as a whole widens one's visual understanding of religious art - far beyond the canon of Western-European. This book is spiritually and visually engaging in new ways, every time I peruse its large plates of art. I have owned this book for years, and re-ordered it because I thought I had lost it. This is an important book for those wanting to deepen their understanding of biblical texts illuminated through visual art.
