Binding The Baroness: A BDSM Historical Romance (Cavern Of Pleasures Book 3)

Synopsis

"Ten thousand pounds if you can seduce the Baroness Debarlow." Advisory: This erotic historical romance contains light BDSM elements, bondage, and submission. If you like your heat a little wickedly hot with bad boy rakes and fearless women, then dare to enter the Cavern of Pleasures | To save his estate, Montague Edwards, a known rake, agrees to the Earl of Frotham's proposition. The Earl intends his son, the Viscount Tremayne, to marry well, but the Viscount has fallen instead for the scandalous Lady Debarlow. To Abigail Debarlow, marrying the young Viscount is a means to avenging her mother's death. Her plans to elope with the Viscount, however, are upended by the handsome Montague Edwards. An accomplished seductress herself, she nonetheless finds herself at risk of succumbing to his advances. When Montague discovers that Lady Debarlow is a patron of Madame Botreaux's Cavern of Pleasures, he kidnaps the Baroness and takes her to his estate with the intention of fulfilling her every fantasy. But he soon finds he wants to do more than bind her body... Failure to seduce the Baroness means he loses the family estate. But successfully seducing her may mean losing her altogether.

5+++ Stars!! I could not, would not and did not put this book down until the end and what an ending it was!! I finished this book at 3am and wondered if I could start reading it again right then. Em Brown captures her readers in a world of Regency period and she writes the language of that period so well and articulately that you feel that you are sitting in the room with Abigail and Montague. I will warn you that this book has light BDSM aspects so if that bothers you then maybe this isn't the book for you. I am a HUGE fan of Em's work and this story did not disappoint. It is captivating and satisfying and a scrumptious read that propelled me into that world with such ease that I felt totally surrounded by the sights and sounds of the period. I loved Abigail (Baroness Debarlow) and Montague Edwards, they are at odds with each other at the beginning and dance around each other for a while but then Montague is put to the task of seducing the Baroness and the story is off and running. I laughed and sighed and gasped and giggled and melted. Em Brown has a wonderful talent of pulling the reader into her world, developing a plot and characters that make you care about them and their lives and then takes you on a journey of steaminess and naughtiness and gentility and intrigue. I always feel stunned at the end of her stories at how easy it was to be sucked into the plot and intrigue and richness of the prose. I cannot wait to see where Em takes this series, who will be the next to be tied to a bedpost? I received an Advanced Reader Copy of this book and I am voluntarily giving it an honest and open review. Bravo Em!! Brava!!

The book is amazing. When I started reading I couldn't put it down. Keep up the good work.

Edward Montague, accepted the offer to seduce the Baroness, Lady Abigail Debarlow, wherein he will be paid handsomely by Earl Frotham. He immediately let someone follow Lady Debarlow to know more about her and discovered that she's a Dominatrix in Cavern of Pleasure, an establishment that caters to some sexual fetishes. Meanwhile, Lady Debarlow is determined to have her revenge against Earl Frotham for what he did to her mother and one way to get it is by marrying his son, Charles. Their plan to elope was apprehended by Edward and kidnaps Lady Debarlow. During her captivity, Lady Debarlow became the submissive to a Dominant Edward and she likes it. Scenes that ensue between these two will definitely get you hot and bothered! Without admitting it, both Edward and Abigail, slowly falling for each other while spending just a day or two together. That's why when Edward freed Abigail, she's quite hesitant to go but she must decide what to do next about her revenge. Will Abigail forget her revenge and be with Edward? Can Edward have the courage tell Abigail the truth and hope she'll understand him? EM Brown wrote another romance with a BDSM twist. Binding the Baroness is an enthralling story, a page turner that you can't put down. It was eloquently written, characters that are well developed and the pacing of each scene are just right. Another great reading experience from this author that never fails to capture my attention the way she tells her story. I highly recommend this book if you want variety in your historical romance book read. And if you're curious about riding crop and Cat o' nine tails use, let Edward Montague shows you how. Happy Reading!

Abigail [Baroness Debarlow] and Montague Edwards are at odds with each other at the very beginning of they seem to dance around each other, testing the water to see what's what, its a somewhat subtle game they play the main question being which is the cat and which is the mouse, now that's the real puzzle?As with all of Em's books they are always charged with the unknown pleasure, seduction, pain, lust, secrecy and sexual allure in spades and this book lives up to all that and so much more. The Cavern is known for its BDSM theme and this didn't disappoint.The depth of description that is always included in each of her books make it so easy for any reader to actually imagine themselves in the same room, there are very few writers that are successfully able to bring scenes to life with just the use of the written word but these books and this inspired author never fails to deliver.Once again, I am able to guarantee that this book once started will be impossible to put down, the need to discover the final outcome is far too great, all I will say to any prospective reader is that you will not be disappointed!!!!As always, I await the next written masterpiece by Em, she is a very generous writer never failing to release books at fairly regular intervals however I must be honest and say that if she presented a new title every week, it still would leave many of her fans wanting more! More !! enjoyed the book and look forward to reading any future publications; keep up all the great writing.

In the beginning of the book we see Montague Edwards trying to save his property working for a man that he does not like, the Earl of Frotham. The job is to distract the Earl's son from the Baroness Abigail Debarlow by using any means necessary. Some of the characters were written so well that even I began to hate them and were rooting against them. Which also means I was rooting for the main characters.The story has some unexpected turns that I will not type out because you should just read the book for your self to find out, I really do not want to ruin it.It is worth the read though. There is some BDSM but there is a whole lot more to the story. Loved the ending.I know this is the 3rd book in the series but it is fine as a stand alone. You are given enough information and it is easy to follow along with so you are not lost.I received this book for free to read from the author in exchange for an honest review. The opinions in this review are 100% my own.
