God Is Near

Synopsis

Rigley had Annabelle's heart as soon as he jumped into her lap and kissed her on the nose. This adorable bunny brings the story behind the story of the redbird. God Is Near engages the imagination with a charming story showing how God speaks His message of love through His creation. Using signs and wonders, God teaches children that He walks with them through sadness, loneliness, or whatever life brings their way. He shows how He hears and answers prayers, but most of all, He assures children that they will never be alone because He is always near.

Jan Jenkins Carter left the corporate world of marketing and is now a stay-at-home "Registered Mom" who is crazy about her husband, children, family, and friends. But her passions are Jesus and her God-given gift of encouraging others. Whether she's leading a Bible study, writing, speaking or having private lunch meetings with people who need God's embrace, Jan feels it is her honor and privilege to pour God's hope and unconditional love into anyone willing to listen. A visual learner, Jan is thankful God's Word incorporates illustrations, stories, and word pictures so that we can understand and relate to God. It is with a sense of whimsy, coupled with powerful biblical truths, that Jan penned her first book, God Is Near. The book is based on a much-beloved true story passed down for generations within her family. Jan wanted to share the impact the story has had on her own life, such as the simple but profound truths it taught: God is near, He hears and answers our prayers, and He uses signs, wonders, imagination, and miracles to reveal himself to us. Jan can talk the ears off a billy goat and brings laughter to most situations. She believes that you should worship instead of worry. She enjoys painting, potting flowers, decorating, girl's beach trips, snow skiing, fires in the fireplace, hot buttered popcorn and Raisinets at the movies, her husband's blue eyes and his love for the Lord, holidays with family, the smiles of her children, praise and worship, giving gifts, and the precious sound of her mother's voice. Jan resides in Birmingham, Alabama with her husband of thirty-six years and her adorable daughter and two sons. She loves life, her family, and her home, and she thinks she has an addiction to Pine-Sol®[®], Windex®[®], Pledge®[®], and Miracle-Gro®[®]! --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

This afternoon I was watching a pair of cardinals outside of my kitchen window, and as always they reminded me that God is near. A little while later, this precious book arrived! There is a joyful exuberance in God is Near that will appeal to young minds and the hope filled message will touch their hearts. Children will love the beautiful illustrations and will learn that God hears and answers their prayers. I highly recommend this book!

This adorable book goes far beyond just cute and fun! The lesson of God being near is so comforting, so sweet and very very important for our children. Without God, we have nothing. Knowing He is always near just warms the soul, and soothes the fears of our children! The author obviously has a close relationship with God! She ministers to her friends and loved ones while indeed being in need herself of prayer and healing! Jan Carter has a beautiful gift!

This is a sweet little book. I recommend it as a Sunday School class room reading for grammar school aged children, for parents to read to their children, who seem to be unable to make friends or are just lonely, to children of broken families, to children of complete but dysfunctional families, and to all other children not mentioned here. May God bless all of the children and let them know he is always near.

Such a pure simple truth expressed in such a delightful way and illustrated beautifully. Redbirds will bring me joy for the rest of my life. Thank you for sharing such a wonderful story.
