POETiCA

Synopsis

Shane Windham's seventh poetry collection. Completed in 2011 and containing over one hundred brand new poems; POETiCA is something the author has described as being: "...an abrasively honest, sexy, violent and often transcendent look at the emotional perspectives of certain individuals I've cared for. It is also meant to be an inspired 'thank you' of sorts to those precious few artists whom I admire." The book contains many appreciative nods of dedication to people such as Carl Sagan, Luis Royo, and even Aaron Yates (better known as American rapper Tech N9ne). POETiCA marks the long awaited return of Holly Ann Sprabary; one of Shane's more memorable pen names; as it sees him writing from a feminine point of view. Readers are certainly in for an experience unlike any other as they flip through this moving page turner. Chapters found within this collection include: A HEAD IN THE CLOUDS FROM THE HEART OF A STAR HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION NO SUGAR, NO SPICE AS USHER FELL INSPIRED BY THE BLUE PRINCE LADY IN WAITING SOMBER 36'S EPHEMERAL EXTENSIONS REITERATION Cover art by C.D. Coleman.

Customer Reviews

This author deservedly sits on my bookshelf amongst some of the greatest poets of all time. He is brilliantly raw and refreshingly unconstrained. Brave in his subject matter. Unflinching in his desires. Unique in his vulnerability. Masterful with his words. He is in a class of his own. What a gem of a writer. Would make a great gift for any poetry lover.
