The Final Confrontation

Synopsis

Many years ago, Pope St. John Paul II said, "We are now standing in the face of the greatest historical confrontation humanity has ever experienced—the final confrontation between the Church and the anti-church, between the gospel and the anti-gospel, between Christ and the Antichrist. The confrontation lies within the plans of Divine Providence. It is, therefore, in God's Plan, and it must be a trial which the Church must take up, and face courageously..." In this booklet, Ralph Martin takes a look at what Scripture says about the final confrontation and the work of the Evil One. He exposes the lies of the enemy and the truth about Divine Mercy. He also identifies what we must do to face the present trials with courage.

Customer Reviews

One of the most compelling things a Christian must do in his life, is to acknowledge his Creator with love. The other things are to be grateful, remorseful of committing sin, but especially not presuming upon the graces of Almighty God, and to Fear the Lord, because with all his mercy, and love, he is also just! Most Christians forget the last part. They presume too much...did not Our God call us to holiness, as he is holy? He did! Ralph Martin reminds us very well that Our Lord's commands were..."Love God....and Love One Another." And the people in his Kingdom personify the Love of the Father, striving to live holy & pure lives, in anticipation of the 2nd coming of their King and God!...

This short book/pamphlet gives the most authentic background and history of what probably has already started: the final confrontation. The scriptural evidence is there plus, what can only be given by the Catholic Church: tradition. It is concise and quite persuasive. Read for yourself, decide for yourself. I recommend it highly.

See the last two paragraphs: The message of Divine Mercy is that no sinner should be afraid to approach the Lord, Who is infinitely merciful and eager to forgive sin; however, we can't receive mercy unless we recognize our need for it and respond to it with humility, repentance, and faith. This is exactly the teaching of the Catechism of the Catholic Church: "There are no limits to the mercy of God, but anyone who deliberately refuses to accept his mercy by repenting, rejects the forgiveness of his sins and the salvation offered by the Holy Spirit." (1864) 24. NB [note well] Note 24 Catechism of the Catholic Church, Second Edition. (Washington, DC: United States Catholic Conference, 2000.), 1864. Catholic Church: "There are no limits to the mercy of God, but anyone who deliberately refuses to accept his mercy by repenting, rejects the forgiveness of his sins and the salvation offered by the Holy Spirit." (1864) 24.

Amazing how everything we were warned about in scripture is now coming true.

Ralph Martin is an excellent writer and apologist for the Catholic faith. This beautiful short explanation of the meaning and purpose of Divine Mercy is a very good reminder of what God has told us about the purpose of our short lives here on earth. St. Faustina was given a powerful and important message for those of us born in the 20th century. This is the time of Divine Mercy which is God's offer to us but for that mercy to be effective we must have a consciousness of how we have turned away from God and His way of living and turn back before it is too late.

A great book for our time to reflect on God's love and mercy and His grandeur and majesty

Ralph Martin has looked deep into chaos, knows the measure of it, and shows us the road to our home. A basic, short and powerful book about the need for repentance.

Really nothing new. But is a good reference book, of un-revised History, for young people.
