5 Stars. "Another great book by Rosalie Marsh that should not be missed. Most enjoyable mystery tour that anyone could take from the comfort of their sofas. The flow of words employed to narrate it, is in itself most refreshing making this tour a relaxing adventure not to be missed. A family book that should appeal to everyone."Joseph Abela, Author. 13th July 2011 UK This review was posted on UK for Chasing Rainbows ( Paperback) 5 Stars. Another great read. This well written book is both funny and informative. As a map lover myself I found the map verses sat. nav. theme running throughout the book very amusing. For anyone planning on undertaking such a journey, it is an excellent travelogue with plenty of useful tips. For those who weren't thinking of venturing down that road, I guarantee that by the end of the book, you will be yearning to do so. A great follow up to Just Us Two. Robert A. Thompson (North Wales) UK This review was posted on UK for Chasing Rainbows ( Paperback) This author is worthy of your consideration. She is an entertaining and informed writer. Dr Graham

This book simply had to be written. Our return to Ireland in 2009 was the start of my love-hate relationship with a sat nav. At this point another book was not planned. However, after our unexpected return to Andorra where we diverted through France, and further 'experiences' with the hidden controller, I was drawn to recounting our experiences. This trip was actually the real ending to our Gold Wing travels as, although we were not on the motorbike having been forced to sell it, it was our 'last good-bye' to our biking days.. Rosalie x
