Women And Crime: A Text/Reader (SAGE Text/Reader Series In Criminology And Criminal Justice)

Synopsis

The Second Edition of Women and Crime: A Text/Reader, part of the text/reader series in criminology and criminal justice, incorporates contemporary readings (including some policy implications) accompanied by student-friendly authored text. This unique format provides a theoretical framework and context for students. The text includes the history and theories of victimization, female offending, international victimization issues, the processing and sentencing of female offenders, girls in the juvenile justice system, the supervision and incarceration of women, women and work in the criminal justice system. The text also includes cutting edge case studies of women in the criminal justice system on issues such as the Steubenville Rape case, Cleveland's House of Horrors, Witchcraft in Papua New Guinea and Jodi Arias.

She is an active member of the American Society of Criminology, the ASCA's Division on Women and Crime and the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences.

Proper book for one Dr. Norris. Alright book, contains research in every chapter which contributes to its hefty size. Rather comprehensive book good for study material.

This was a gift. She loves it. Needed it for a class.

This is for school - came in great shape

Arrived as advertised. Excellent condition.

Thank you!!!!
