Two strangers meet accidentally and start with a wrong foot, but then become friends helping each other out towards brightness and positivity. Happy to go lucky and clean freak Olive Parker, a professional feature writer and photographer, bumps into an arrogant and depressed Matthew Pratt on the flight to London. Dumped and almost bankrupted Matthew Pratt has walked out of his family business and board the first flight available. He just wish for one thing, left alone by himself but fate can be a bitch. Fortunately unfortunately, his co-passenger is a talkative girl who left no chance to taunt and irritate him. At last, he gives up and become friend with persistent and chirpy Olive. The plane made an emergency landing in Spain and their two days stay changed their lives for good. Matt's life takes a U-turn as he, full of confidence and brightness, decides to face the miseries clouding his life. Little did he know that he had fall in love with every-positive Olive. What goes around, comes around. History repeats itself and but this time, Olive and Matthew has switch the places.
