Empty Zone Volume 1: Conversations With The Dead

Synopsis

Eisner nominated artist JASON SHAWN ALEXANDER (Abe Sapien: The Drowning, Queen and Country) brings us a future 80 years after a worldwide black out. The world is a much darker and scarier place. Corinne White is an ex-soldier turned black market spy, data courier, manic-depressive, alcoholic. Punishing herself for mistakes from her past, Corinne is brought out from her spiral when she's contacted by her dead fiends who inform her of a plot to reanimate the bodies of the dead by a psychotic billionaire. EMPTY ZONE follows Corrine as she confronts these undead monsters and comes to terms with her past. Collects EMPTY ZONE #1-5.

Customer Reviews

The market is saturated with dystopian futuristic comics these days, so what separates Empty Zone from the hordes? Firstly the art is gorgeous, the bold hand drawn lines and saturated coloration makes it a feast for the eyes, penned by the one and only Jason Shawn Alexander. Add in an engaging, exciting, and deliriously sinful storyline and you have, in my not so humble opinion, one of the best new book releases of 2015. The volume is printed on great paper stock, it can take a beating (I've lent it to everyone I know). Thanks image comics for another winner

It had very light scratches on the magazine cover also it had a pinprick on the front middle part of the cover it didn't go through it just kind of made a indentation on the other side of the front cover

other than that, it's really nice and it's one of my new favorite series

This is a great looking book! If you are into cyberpunk mash upped with a hellboy sensibility... There is nothing better. The world feels like Blade Runner meets a ghost story. I loved it

Starts off well, but drops in tension, sort of gets boring, then barely picks up again, but doesn't quite get there

Love the art and the story was good.

Amazing art and original story telling. Highly recommend. No filler here, can't wait for more.

Excellent art!!!

Haven't finished reading yet, too busy drinking in the sumptuous art work....by God, its incredible!!
