Customer Reviews

Dennis Young is a minister and grief counselor who conducts death, dying and bereavement seminars for churches and community groups. he serves as a volunteer bereavement facilitator in Baystate Medical Center's Hospice training program in Springfield, Mass. He has completed the Hospice Training Program on death and Bereavement and training with the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation. He is also certified as a bereavement facilitator by the American Academy of Bereavement. Dennis' strong biblical knowledge and compassionate understanding of people add spirituality and depth to his grief counseling. He lives in Springfield , Massachusetts with his wife and three children.

I bought this book for a client and also read it myself and found it to be very helpful for shedding light onto the grieving process.
