DAVID A. KELLY enjoyed playing kickball, baseball, football, basketball, curling, and other sports as a kid. But what he loved best of all was reading. Now his favorite activity is writing sports books for children, including the Ballpark Mysteries series, the MVP series, the nonfiction book Babe Ruth and the Baseball Curse, and the picture book Miracle Mud: Lena Blackburne and the Secret Mud that Changed Baseball. Great books for early readers, boys or girls especially if they have an interest in professional baseball. I enjoy reading it to my son's in kinder and 2nd grade. It holds their interest. My second grader, who does read on a third-grade level is also able to read the books for himself.

Great books for the sports lover. My 8 year old grandson really enjoys these. Can't wait for the next one.

Grandson seemed excited and eager to read once he realized it was 4 books instead of one long one!

Awesome book set for young readers. My sports loving son is really loving these.

Excited to give these to my son for the holidays!

This is for our 6 year old grandson who loves baseball. He said it was a good choice!

This was a gift. Received as described.

Super series for little boys especially if they like baseball. My son loves these books. He is 8 and this is the first series he has really gotten into.
