Detroit Neighborhood Guidebook

Synopsis

Detroiters think that they know the neighborhoods, but because there are so many parts to the city the definitions become too broad, the characteristics become muddled, and the stories become lost. The essays in this collection bring the neighborhoods of Detroit to life, and will appeal to readers who are interested in the complex history and culture of Detroit as well as to Detroit residents and visitors. The contributors include Marsha Music, Drew Philip, Ian Thibodeau, Zoe Villegas, Hakeem Waterspoon, and more.
