It is an amazing forty day journey to change your conception of love in a world where it is more and more commoditized. I am grateful that such a book was written!

One of my friends had read this book and recommended it to me. Dating & sex is the #1 area in my faith that I struggle with the most, and this book really broke things down and challenged me to look at my habits and plan ahead for the future relationships I might have. The different testimony stories really helped me see that I'm not alone in this struggle and that it is possible to overcome bad habits and temptation. I would definitely recommend this book to anyone! God bless!

Awesome book! For those who are struggling to live chastity! For those who have emotional wounds from past relationships! For whoever wants to know God's will for love, dating, sex and marriage! It's a work book. To read, think, pray and change the way we deal with our relationships. It's easy to read and full of testimonies. I've started with a kindle sample and couldn't stop reading. It's worth it!

This book will help you grow. The daily detox is great to reflect on. Forty days is all you need to commit to reading this book. The chapters are short and interesting.

Great book for Lent. My boyfriend and I read it together and we are striving to live in the fullness of God's love. More geared towards college age and we are a bit beyond that, but nonetheless we got the picture

I have to say that I was unsure about doing this dating detox. After 40 days it has taught me so much about myself that I just want to keep going back to it to remind me of who I am. This is a game changer.

got a copy for myself, my daughter and the school she goes to. invited her to give it away to a needy teenager as need be. would love to here them speak

Though especially helpful for the college-age dating community, this book is helpful for anyone in any position as well. Most of us need help learning how to get out of our own way to love more purely and this will help you get there. (Even outside of a romantic relationship - love is love!)
