Customer Reviews

An excellent overview of the Classical and later sites of Turkey. It is unfortunate there has been no updated edition recently and that this reprint edition is sometimes less well printed than it might be. Indeed some of the site maps are better reproduced in the 2nd (1995) edition. But overall an exceptionally good guide book (like all the Blue Guides).

The Blue Guide: Turkey offers extensive information about ALL the archaeological sites in Turkey. The information is recent and as thorough as I have ever found in any travel guide. It offers complete directions to the site, information on the history of the site and of its excavation, extensive descriptions on what is to be seen, when the site is open, what amenities are available, and to whom to address questions (who is in charge there). I don't have unlimited time to travel, so Blue Guide: Turkey helps me find the sites I wish to see. It is as handy and indispensable as any travel guide I have ever bought. I have bought a lot of them.

If you'd like the rich culture and archaeological treasures of Turkey explained in greater depth than the "Land of Contrasts" approach and thumbnail sketches provided by backpackers guides, then the Blue Guide is the book for you.

I bought it because of my friend and he said this book has got every historical places in Turkey.
