Customer Reviews

This book encouraged me to do the right thing for freedom. I learned that doing the wrong thing can hurt your life. This book discourages me from running away. This book teaches me many facts about Ben Franklin that are astonishing.

My 7 year old grandson and I enjoyed reading this book together. We learned new things about Ben Franklin. When he had questions about something usually the questions were answered in the next few sentences.

There was not enough information about Benjamin Franklin and you needed better captions for each picture. But it was still good!

Well written and easy for an 8 year old to read and gather information for a book report.

I love ben Franklin !!!!He is awesome person to learn aboutHe is my favorite person to learn about(My name is Ben)

It is a great book to read to children of all ages. I learned things I did not know and I am a history teacher.

Terrific and educational...I'm a adult and loved it book in very good condition prompt service
