Jonathan Berk is the A.P. Giannini Professor of Finance at the Graduate School of Business, Stanford University and is a Research Associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research.

Before coming to Stanford, he was the Sylvan Coleman Professor of Finance at Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley. Prior to earning his Ph.D., he worked as an Associate at Goldman Sachs (where his education in finance really began). Professor Berk's research interests in finance include corporate valuation, capital structure, mutual funds, asset pricing, experimental economics, and labor economics. His work has won a number of research awards including the TIAA-CREF Paul A. Samuelson Award, the Smith Breeden Prize, Best Paper of the Year in The Review of Financial Studies, and the FAME Research Prize. His paper, "A Critique of Size-Related Anomalies" was selected as one of the two best papers ever published in The Review of Financial Studies. In recognition of his influence on the practice of finance he has received the Bernstein-Fabozzi/Jacobs Levy Award, the Graham and Dodd Award of Excellence, and the Roger F. Murray Prize. He served as Associate Editor of the Journal of Finance, Director of the Western Finance Association, Academic Director of the Financial Management Association, is a Fellow of the Financial Management Association, and is a member of the advisory board of the Journal of Portfolio Management. Born in Johannesburg, South Africa, Professor Berk is married, with two daughters, and is an avid skier and biker.

Peter DeMarzo is the Mizuho Financial Group Professor of Finance and current Vice President of the American Finance Association. He is also a Research Associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research. He currently teaches MBA and Ph.D. courses in Corporate Finance and Financial Modeling. In addition to his experience at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, Professor DeMarzo has taught at the Haas School of Business and the Kellogg Graduate School of Management, and he was a National Fellow at the Hoover Institution. Professor DeMarzo received the Sloan Teaching Excellence Award at Stanford, and the Earl F. Cheit Outstanding Teaching Award at U.C. Berkeley. Professor DeMarzo has served as an Associate Editor for The Review of Financial Studies, Financial Management, and the B.E. Journals in Economic Analysis and Policy, as well as a Director of the American Finance Association. He has served as Vice President and President of the Western Finance Association. Professor DeMarzo's research is in the area of corporate finance, asset securitization, and contracting, as well as market structure and regulation. His recent work has examined issues of the optimal design of contracts and securities, and the influence of information asymmetries on stock prices and corporate investment. He has received numerous awards including the Western Finance Association Corporate Finance Award and the Barclays Global Investors/Michael Brennan best-paper award from The Review of Financial Studies. Professor DeMarzo was born in Whitestone, New York, and is married with three boys.

Did not come with the MyFinanceLab access code even though it is being sold as new.

Nice Item

Meet my expectations. Book was in very good condition.

Don't buy the online version! I bought it, but the exercises are the same of the 3rd edition which does not make sense!

A new copy of the book is suppose to contain a code for "MyFinanceLab" access (required for my class) ,either in a packet that came with the book or in the first few pages of the book, but no such code exists in the text! So on top of the steep price I have to spend another $65.00 to receive the code. I assumed this was a mistake and requested a replacement (which arrived quickly) which also lacked a code. Very frustrating and now the class is starting so I don't have time to resolve the issue properly.

Prof. DeMarzo wrote a one-stop book about Corporate Finance that touches on all main topics of the subject and, most importantly, provides a fresh view on concepts that are out-of-date in other important books in the field.I had the pleasure of meeting Prof. DeMarzo during Stanford's GSB LEAD Executive Program and he was kind enough to provide me with excellent advice on my startup. I think Prof. DeMarzo's book reflects his true intention of helping his students succeed.With more than 1.000 pages, this book is book is the complete reference for all my needs in Corporate Finance.

I bought this book as an alternative to the hardcover edition thinking it would be the same but I found out that all the problems have different numbers, so when doing homework I was really in trouble...
