At last! This is the book stage managers everywhere have been waiting for. Written by one of the greatest stage managers of our time, it is informative, wise, humorous and real. Peter Lawrence's book will definitely be required reading. --Frank Lombardi, Director of Stage Management Program, University of North Carolina School of the Arts
Skilled stage managers bring structure, flexibility, humor, and theatrical knowledge to their complex work. We expect nothing less from Peter Lawrence. It is a must-read text for all serious stage and production management students. --Elsbeth M. Collins, Associate Professor of Theatre Practice, Director of Production, University of Southern California

As a working stage manager in the industry, I cannot say enough good things about Peter Lawrence's book. A refreshing, frank, comprehensive, and enlightening approach to the craft of stage management. A must read for anyone starting out, interested in learning about, or (especially) currently working in the industry. Even the most seasoned of professionals should give this a read...I'm sure you'll learn something or see something in a new and exciting way.

A Stage Managers' must have. Don't leave home or walk thru the stage door without having read this book.

Very enjoyable read. I loved the stories from Mr Lawrence's vast experience in the business. A great inside look at putting a Broadway show together.

An awesome book by an awesome man! Privileged to be able to say, "I have worked with the great Peter Lawrence!

A must for theater professionals, a must read.

arrived on time great product

Having had a Stage Manager career I want to guide those in or headed for a theatre career to this book. This should be text for all College Theatre Departments.
