Synopsis

Sarah Robinson is deeply troubled in the wake of her dad's second marriage. She now has to deal with a new stepmom and two stepbrothers, Marco, who is her age, and Nacho, who's younger. Even though they've all moved from Texas to California to start life as a new, blended family, none of the kids seem remotely happy about it. Sarah's dad and stepmom then decide to take the whole family on a special vacation in order to break the ice and have everyone get to know one another. They'll fly to Tahiti, charter a boat, and go sailing for a few days. It'll be an adventure, right? Wrong. Dead wrong. Shipwreck Island is the first installment in a series from S.A. Bodeen.

Gr 4â⠬⠜7â⠬⠕In this exciting series debut, 12-year-old Sarah Robinson responds with ill-grace to her father's remarriage after six years as a widower. She is unfriendly to her two stepbrothers, younger Nacho and Marco, her own age. She's even worse to her stepmother. In an effort to bring everyone closer, her dad and stepmom opt to book a family honeymoon on a luxury yacht. A terrible storm, loss of the skipper, and subsequent landing on an island that initially appears inviting but quickly proves otherworldly and dangerous, cause the warring kids to reluctantly work together. These very human protagonists respond in believable ways to their new family situation while encountering freakish animals, bizarrely dangerous weather, and a creepy, empty house. This is intensely readable and will be excellent for reluctant readers. Should be popular with fans of adventure, fantasy, and the slightly sinister.  $\tilde{A}\phi\hat{a} - \hat{a}$  •B. Allison Gray, Goleta Public Library, CA
