Customer Reviews

I wish I had learned of this type of calendar earlier in life as it would've made life a lot easier. And while a lot of people are switching over to electronic calendars, I still prefer seeing things in print like this. I read that this is a popular product in the Netherlands where people hang it up in their bathrooms, and that's a pretty ingenious idea that America needs to get on board with!

This birthday/perpetual calendar is just what I was looking for. It's the perfect size, has a metal loop for hanging it easily, and has beautiful or interesting artwork. Plenty of room to write names on the lines.

The product is fine but the ordering process wasn't . I couldn't reset my password to get into my account. I tried three times. therefore I couldn't choose which shipping I wanted, and was charged for two day shipping which I didn't want or need. This happened on both my orders. Now I have two expensive charges on my card. The shipping charges were more than the price of the items I ordered. I am not happy. I like your products, but after this I will think twice before I order anything again. It has taken me two days to finally reset my password. Thank you.

the print is not as dark as it should be you have to look too close to see the numbers

Perfect. I use these as a backup for birthday alarm so I can readily see what's coming up.

Nice calendar but I thought maybe it would be a little bit bigger. It's still a very nice calendar to use year after year. Well worth the money.

Good choice of paintings. Classic calendar that can be hung easily on one hook or a towel bar at a place where the family usually passes every day
