PopOut is the unique, genuinely pocket-sized map which features our patented PopOut fold. It is this innovative design that allows our precise, easy to follow cartography to be right in your hand when you need it most. Moreover, the origami fold means you can do away with that awkward, oversized map, making it a compact and discreet reference tool that doesn't shout "tourist alert"! PopOut was founded in 1993. Having spotted a need to cure what he calls 'Map Stress Syndrome' after watching numerous tourists around the City of Bath, England, battling with oversized maps, founder Derek Dacey recalled the invaluable miniature charts he used during his days as a commercial pilot. Aiming to bring this level of usability to the city map market, a small team of designers was recruited to realise what would soon become the PopOut. 1993 saw the release of the first ever PopOut Map Bath, which was sold in the gift and souvenir trade across the city. Hot on the heels of this initial success, a research trip to the USA culminated in a redesigned layout, combining strong photo images, high quality printing and laminated covers – standards which are still adhered to today. That research trip also saw the birth of the first US destinations covered in the PopOut range – Boston, NYC, Philadelphia and Washington DC. Launched in the new style in the US they enjoyed instant success in the gift and souvenir trade. Today, PopOut produces over 100 titles for major destinations and is loved by travellers the world over.

I used the map as an overall guide to getting around Singapore. It doesn't have all the street details but it gives a great overall view of the city. I have my iPhone with Google Maps but nothing beats a paper map when you're on a subway train with no GPS access and have no idea where you're headed! I used the subway guide on the back and it saved me from getting lost on the Singapore subways countless times. The map is small and discrete and when folded up, it fits nicely in my purse and the font size is still legible. I was able to whip out the map and navigate around the city like a local.

SURPRISINGLY good. The photo makes this look like an absurd thing but it's nice and small, fits in a back pocket, and the MRT map on the back, easily viewable, would be worth it alone. Not laminated, just glossy. Can be a little tricky to fold back up after you've opened it a few times, not awful.

I love these maps! I have one for Bath, Chicago, and now Singapore. makes it easy to get where you're going in a strange city.

Very good map.
