It's just OK. I guess if one were constantly traveling to places like Llano, Burnet, or San Antonio, it has some value, but the Austin portion just isn't detailed enough. I know, I know, read the title and the fact that 'Hill Country' is included should give some clues to how much area this covers, but I still feel like the "downtown" sub-map should be expanded and perhaps be a "central Austin" submap - there's lots of blank space on this map as there isn't a whole lot between these Central TX towns - seems like a poor design.

Not as detailed for the cities and towns as I had hoped. Just okay.

Same as above. Map was dated. Didn't even have the route my daughter's house is on. Worthless to me. Also, very hard to use. Had to flip upside down back and forth. Not good while you're driving.

Just a great nap love it

The map itself is alright but the paper quality is low and tears easily.

Pretty good but didn't have as much info as we would have liked.

Made my trip to San Antonio better. Thanks

As always Rand McNally has the best maps!
