Synopsis

Thinking about law school? Maybe part-time law school? Don't want to spend time finishing a long novel? Great. This book can be finished in an hour! Perhaps you work full time and are looking for an honest depiction of what you should know before you enroll in law school. This short book is designed to give you an overview of what you should know before you begin, especially if you are going to be working full time and are considering night school. In addition, it will also inform you on how to maneuver in law school. This is a short book on purpose. I want you to be able to refer to it throughout your studies and listen again if necessary during your breaks. Another reason I kept it short is because no one who is about to begin or is enrolled in law school wants to spend time finishing a big book. The reality is that you do not have the time for additional work. The content in it will get you ready for starting law school and assist you to get in a position to win!

Customer Reviews

This book was truly inspirational. and informative. As a father of a child who is currently applying to graduate schools, I found this manuscript extremely helpful to assist him in the application process. I highly recommend this too any students, especially those already in ensconced in a career, in which they desire to advance.

This book is great! Especially if your an undergraduate as I am and are thinking about pursuing a law degree. Also it's an easy/fast read, the author gets right to the point.

Excellent book. Clear, concise, and informative. A swift read. Perfect for anyone looking to attend law school part-time and wondering how to make it all work.
