Customer Reviews

This is another beautiful coloring book by Christian Art Publishers. The book is filled with 58 lovely designs (licensed by Shutterstock) with verses (and cites) from the Book of Proverbs. This is the book I look to for day to day lessons on what is expected from each of us. Sometimes the lesson is easy and sometimes it is hard to take. But it is always right. The book is very well made and has many of the points that I look for in coloring books. While the images are licensed, they have been reworked to be used with the Bible quotes. Out of the 58 designs, only one is familiar to me as one that I have colored previously. There are 58 large designs plus 11 bookmark and card sizes, too.

While the pages are perforated, you will have to cut the bookmark/cards out of the page in order to use for their intended purpose. There are no cutting lines. The Bible translations used for the verses are: Holy Bible, New International Version NIV, Holy Bible, New Living Translation, Holy Bible, Contemporary English Version, and Holy Bible, English Standard Version. This is what I experienced while coloring in this book and testing my coloring medium on the paper: 58 Designs with Inspiring Life Lesson from the Book of Proverbs with bonus 11 bookmark/cards size designs Printed one side of the page Paper is heavyweight, white, somewhat smooth and perforated Sewn Binding Some Designs merge past the perforations and into the binding area. If you remove designs at the perforations, you will not lose elements essential to the designs. Book can be opened fairly flat for coloring but you must use a lot of pressure to break the spine. Alcohol-based markers bleed through the page. I suggest use of a blotter page if you use this type of marker. It will keep ink from seeping through to the design below. I use card stock as my blotter but a couple of pages of heavyweight paper work well, too. Of course, you can always remove your pages from the book prior to coloring. Water-based markers, gel pens, and India Ink pens do not bleed through the page. Some gel pens require additional drying time. Colored pencils work well with this paper. Though it is somewhat smooth, it still has enough tooth for good pigment, layering, and blending. I tested both oil and wax based pencils with good results.

Excellent way to destress with taking a pill. LOL Love the books in this line of publishers. I'm 56 y/o and yes, I still like to color. It's soothing to blend colors and meditate on the scripture at hand and a great way to have quiet prayer with our Lord.

A wonderful coloring book and bought one for my grandsons as well. They love spiritually influenced coloring books and I'm thrilled they love them so much. They would be a great idea for Sunday and Sabbath school classes for junior high and older children as well. I've been told by a teacher that coloring is calming and many children learn better following a coloring session.

Purchased several as Christmas gifts. Sharing God is one way to witness to those who are having hard times, and just need to be reminded of His love for them at all times.

Loved everything about them. I love that it's only one image per page. Love that the pages are card stock not just regular paper. Love all the verses and the art.

Mom loves this and we bought 2 more for gifts. She said it was calming for her.

Nice variety of pages and it's nice to have scripture based pages

High quality paper with a good variety of designs and scriptures.
