St. Alphonsus Liguori was born in 1696 to Neapolitan nobility at Marianella, Italy. He became a recognizable lawyer after going through law school at the age of sixteen, but later decided to leave law in favor of giving his salvation more attention. Alphonsus joined the Oratory of St. Philip Neri as a seminarian and was ordained in 1726, when he was thirty. The homilies he gave had the special ability of converting those who had fallen away from the faith. He also founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, and authored such works as The Glories of Mary, The True Spouse of Jesus Christ, Attaining Salvation, The Blessed Virgin Mary, Preparation for Death Abridged, What Will Hell Be Like?, The Twelve Steps to Holiness and Salvation, and The Way of the Cross. After being a bishop for over a decade, St. Alphonsus Liguori died on the first of August, 1787. He was canonized by Pope Gregory XVI in 1839, and declared a Doctor of the Church in 1871. His feast is celebrated on August 1.

Good topics, salvation and how to achieve it and so much more.

Very happy

Just one of St. Alphonsus Liguori's great works! Great book to have.

This piece of work from St. Alphonsus make my soul thirsty for righteousness and make me yearn for heaven. I never regret buying this great work for soul.

Good

AS described.....

A wonderful book for any minister or Priest on how to give good sermons. Along with that many of St. Liguori are given in the book. You may not hear these great works in your Church, so it is best to have this book handy on Sunday, and read at least one sermon. You will find yourself picking it up again from time to time. Wonder book from a wonderful Saint. Pax et Bonum, Paul, CFP

A Spiritual Classic. Love all St. Alphonsus writings.
