Customer Reviews

I bought this as an exercise in nostalgia, I've been to Bangkok more than twenty times. For me it was disappointing but I am not the target reader. I think this book will be useful for the first timer but it is lacking, so do your homework. I did not find inaccuracies just lots of omissions. One glaring was "Ladyboys". Love em or hate em ya gotta know about em to avoid getting up to your room with more than you bargained for. It won't take too long before you can spot em. IMHO, avoid Patpong, stick to Nana and Soi Cowboy. At my age though, I go to Thailand for the beaches and the food. Either are worth the price of a ticket.

This is a very good travel guide in general for Bangkok. They do provide a lot of information on the sex side of Bangkok, but they also provide an incredible amount of general information on seeing Bangkok. Overall, I used this guide the most for my Bangkok trip preparation, sightseeing and travel. Probably the best information for me was information on Bangkok dating websites where I met a very sweet, attractive, educated, and proper Bangkok lady prior to my trip that I was able to tour Bangkok and Pattaya beach with. Made for a great vacation.

Contains very little information. Nothing that could not be obtained easily from the Internet. Superficial and without depth. Very short at about 40 pages. Save your money and just search the web.

Awesome and excellent Bangkok travel guide for men I had read! The guides and tips on where men will enjoy in Bangkok are very comprehensive. Very much worth reading and recommending!

I've been once to Thailand and was planning on going again, so picked this book up to see what it had to say. Really good advice for any guy thinking about going to Thailand to explore and have some fun.

I bought this book for my friend and we both really liked it. I will surely share this book since we like bangkok and girls there. This book is awesome!

Seriously, ? With this book, you are encouraging men to participate in human trafficking in Thailand. WTF is wrong with you???

Deplorable book for one reason, base needs of men to be sold to. Horrible...
