Moving To Hawaii - Coming Home To The Big Island

Synopsis

Moving to Hawaii - Coming Home to the Big Island is a handbook to help those thinking of making the leap from the mainland to the Big Island. Complete with insights of her own journey here, this makes a great introduction to your new life on the islands. Also great for those who plan on a visit. Basics on where to go for what, including moving advice, some Hawaiian culture and basic words, holidays (they have additional ones than on the mainland), and sacred places and beaches. Enjoy this adventure! bless

Customer Reviews

Kind of a disappointment. Not really any information new. Most of the information in this book you can get off the internet.

Valuable information for someone who has no prior knowledge of the Big Island. Should have used an editor to clean it up.

Not very useful. There are better books on this subject.

Did not cover anything I was looking for. Good thing I have a friend that lives there already

Not worth it, don't bother buying.

Just what I wanted!

This book is a great introduction to life and things to do on the Big Island! Great suggestions and facts for the new islander. Definitely will use this as a guide while making my move from the mainland. There were several typos in the electronic version.

Wonderful book! Full of great information given with the love of Hawaii. Important things to know from planning a move to actually getting there based on her personal experience. Lots of tips and what to expect. Karen Peacher
