Customer Reviews

By far, Sigalas is top-notch in the art & talent of travel writing! He is thorough, quite funny & entertaining, and insightful.

This book provides excellent information on the sites, restaurants, accomodations, and history of South Carolina. I enjoyed reading it immensely because not only was it was humorous and well written, but it has a lot of interesting historical details and unique suggestions for things to see and do.

I'd definitely recommend this book for anyone wanting to know more about South Carolina. It's got all the information you could want, lots of interesting background, and on top of that, it's a joy to read. Sigalas cracks me up all through this book. Seriously, my wife came in a half-a-dozen times while I was reading to ask me why I was laughing so hard; she couldn't believe I was reading a travel book. A good read even if you're not going to S.C., and a great book to bring along if you are. It's like traveling with a friend who knows all the spots and has a good sense of humor.

A lot of fun to read. I've just finished the first chapter and I already feel like an expert on the state.

If you're looking for a guidebook that's witty while informative, this is it! After a casual read even armchair tourists will be planning a visit to South Carolina. For you experienced travelers, this guide will get you in the know--painlessly. Recommended!
