Beato Goes To is a series of children's illustrative books that takes young readers on a thrilling adventure across different countries. Based on my real life experiences traveling to 67+ countries, many of the characters in the book are real, and the illustrations based on my photos. The main character of the book is my larger than life baby cat called Beato (meaning happy in Latin). Anyone who has met Beato can't stop admiring his large size (he is a 20 pounder), handsome looks (yes he has his own Pinterest page), and friendly personality (aka life of the party). It just made sense that Beato took on my persona and started traveling the world!The books are not just entertaining and educational for kids and adults, but also inspirational in terms of understanding the world. Each book offers many lessons on culture, nature, environment, people, religion, food and more, and I encourage parents to read along with their kids.Additional resources include an augmented reality app, study guides, and coloring pages, available at BeatoGoesTo.com.

Ten percent of the portions from Beato Goes to Indonesia will be donated to Bali Children's Project, a nonprofit organization that helps the children on the Indonesian island of Bali escape poverty through education.

I gave a copy to a young girl who read it to me. This book is very informative even for adults!!

Absolutely love the book. And the most appealing thing for me is that it's based on true travel experiences of the author! Even Beato has his real life representation - Sucheta's cat. As an educator, I love how each page is filled with positive messages - it teaches children cultural sensitivity and develops a thirst for travel and learning more about other countries and cultures. A+

I don't get the opportunity to travel with my preschooler (yet) but Beato Goes to Indonesia is an amazing way to teach him about the cultural aspects of the country. The illustrations are beautiful and he loves Beato! This book makes the perfect gift for preschoolers to young grade school age.

My kids absolutely love this book! Beato teaches them about different cultures and places in an easy to understand fun way. We own the entire series and can't wait to see where Beato goes next! My kids even ask if the author can write a 'Beato goes to Our House' book!:)

No wonder why kids are so addicted and glued Sucheta Rawal. You are an incredible writer !!You mesmerize them with the travel wonders :) You mesmerized me too :)
