I just received my beautiful hard cover copy, and opened at random to Day 247 - Today I Will Not Play Small. "Today I will not allow false modesty to keep me from claiming the power within me. God has placed it there to be used on His behalf, and I serve no one by hiding my light. Pretending to be less than I am is a game that I play at my peril. In truth I have only scratched the surface of the gifts I can give to the world...." A Year of Miracles has already started my new year of 2014 on the right thought. I love, love, this book! I am so happy that I decided on the hard cover, as this generous and stunning book will be my closest companion displayed on my family room table for the whole year and more. Since, I am delighted to have Marianne's precious words of Grace to illuminate my thoughts closer at hand for family and friends. I have been a devout follower of Marianne and ACIM student since 1992. This is the first book that resonates in a powerful way with Mike Dooley's incredible Notes From The Universe that I love. However, what's even more is Marianne's creative power of thought-through reflections of magnificent prayer. I never tire of reading her beautiful words that transpire the Grace of God throughout the pages of "A Year of Miracles." No one prays quite like Marianne and communicates with words that speak directly to our hearts. "Thus shall God's purposes be accomplished on earth as they are in heaven...." are words of Grace recited in one of Marianne's speeches and explains every page in this book to perfection. I highly recommend this book to everyone. Thank you so much, Marianne. Catherine Nagle Author of Imprinted Wisdom

I am reading Marianne Williamson's latest gift of love to the world every morning before my "inner anchorperson" (my new phrase for my ego thanks to Dan Harris' fantastic book "10% Happier") can start its announcements of criticism and judgement. My copy of her book "Illuminata: A Return to Prayer" is so well read and cherished it sits, love-worn and prominently on my desk awaiting me to read each morning and for many other needs. In addition, I've purchased countless copies of her "Everyday Grace" to pass on. Williamson's message has never wavered from her central idea that we need to CHOOSE LOVE above all else, and I am grateful to start daily my own year of miracles through her most recent book.

It is inspiring to read each day's passage. I love this book so much, I've sent copies to friends and they all love it, too. We are all reading the same day and sometimes discuss it. Each day's message is uplifting. I read it first thing in the morning so I can think about it throughout the day.

I bought this over a year ago. I had tried to read the Course in Miracles unsuccessfully. I read this each morning. I write and reflect on the thought for the day. I have a friend that we email each other everyday with our reflection on the reading. There have been some readings we have stayed on for several days because they were pertinent for one of us. We are looking forward to following it another year.

This is what I always hoped someone would write about the Course. It takes Course concepts and explains them by presenting thoughts about the precepts that are for YOU/US, highly personalized. It gives us daily "ways to be" that draw us closer to our higher power and healing of "us" and the world. Thank you Marianne.

Having a stressful job / life sometimes makes it difficult to stop the spinning wheels and the emotional churning residuals from the day. This was especially difficult as I faced the challenges of a new job in a new career, later in life. By taking just 5 minutes or less to be present enough to read one inspirational message (usually just a paragraph), I fall asleep much faster and stay asleep at night. Also, I have better perspective in dealing with others, going forward.

This is my third time I have bought this book. One I gave away to a dear friend and the other a replacement as I have been reading this book daily for years. Perfect morning meditation book. A must have!

WOW, by reading this devotional daily, I noticed I have changed the way I think. I believe I am becoming a more understanding, compassionate, and loving person. I am more conscious of the things I speak and do. I now ponder, contemplate, and filter the things I see and hear. I would recommend this book to all seekers as it enlightens and exhilarates one's senses.
