This was a great little book that not only showed you many different ways to tie a tie, but also had lots of information about different types of ties (wool, silk, knit etc), when and how each should, there is a color wheel to help match clothes together, and a handy chart to show you what color shoes/belt to wear with different color suits. There is also sections on cuff links and lots of other helpful tips to help gentleman put together a polished outfit.

Compact, charming book. Lots of info on ties and other stuff, but the diagrams are fine. Makes a lovely gift.
