This was purchased for a youth boating program We often find ourselves out at sea, far from internet, TV, etc. These CD's provide the perfect evening entertainment. I was a little concerned that today's tech savvy teenagers would find it boring, but they actually really like it and look forward to the evening radio program! The challenge was getting them to listen to the first one, but when they did they really enjoyed it and now they're hooked! It is very appropriate for all ages. This was a good buy and I do recommend it. The only reason that I'm not giving it 5 stars is because not every show is great, though the majority are. In summary: Good price, good product. entertaining and enjoyable for all!

I knocked off 1 star NOT for the product, but for the way the item was packed for shipping. It was inside a bubble envelope that only covered half of it and then put in box. The cardboard CD case was smashed on one side, but it was too close to Christmas to hassle with a return. The product, however, was wonderful! My grandpa immediately put it in and we listened to old radio shows together on Christmas Eve. The shows were very funny and heartwarming, I will definitely recommend this product and other Old Time Radio Shows products

Funny

I bought these after reminiscing with a coworker. I love listening to the old classic stories when imagination was greatly used. I truly enjoy this 20 disc set.

The residents at our assisted living facility love the radio shows! They are also just the right length for our Old-Time Radio activity.

I have enjoyed them and have and will have lots of cold winter nights to listen to them again, Thanks

These radio programs are so much fun to listen to and to set the imagination flowing. I rip them to my computer and download to my MP3 player so that I can listen to them on my daily walks Everything I expected. If you like old time radio you will enjoy this.
