Customer Reviews

My toddler really likes this book. It's part of our bedtime story collection :) Very sturdy pages and easy to read. The reason it's 4/5 was because the illustrations seem to blend in from one page to another, causing a little bit of confusion for such a young reader as the scenes are different but she doesn't understand that yet. Picture one shows the first page, it blends well on both sides as its one big picture. That's perfect. Picture two shows the issue that I have with this book. The scenes on each page are completely different but there is no gap or white space to show some kind of separation or difference between the pages. Not that big of a deal...but still worth mentioning. Overall, I'm satisfied with my purchase and will be purchasing more soon!

Some of the examples are awkward the other series are better

My son loves this book..

Really nice book to teach kids the basics. It is in British English, so be prepared for some change in spelling.

My daughter loves this book and the series! Great way to introduce our practices to little ones!

If you are a true Muslim or if you want to be converted to a Muslim this is the right book for you. It teaches you how to make Du'a anywhere. I would recommend it to any Muslim or non-Muslims who want to read this book.

Love the book, makes it easier for me to read and answer questions to my daughter. She loves reading books and reading religious books makes it easier for me to teach her better

Children love it.
