Charles Edwin Price is the author of numerous books of tall tales and folklore, including The Day They Hung the Elephant, Diggin' Up Bones, and The Infamous Bell Witch of Tennessee.

Demon in the Woods is a fascinating collection of scary stories, which are legends from the East Tennessee area. I thought Mr. Price's presentation of Native American folklore along side the strange stories creates a wonderful, educational treasure. Great for all ages and anyone into creepy, haunting folklore.

I loved this book because being from East Tennessee I was already familiar with many of these tails --just not the original story. Was very happy with the book and bought a copy for my niece who is also a ghost story fan.

Bought it for my brother who really enjoyed reading it.

it's ok but it makes you wonder just how much of it is actually true! But I still enjoy reading about these things especially for anyone in the East Tennessee area about the history of the area.
