This is an older version of the NJ Wildlife Viewing Guide. There is a newer version which is much better organized, more colorful and much easier to use than this one. The new version is available at higher price and well worth it. Unfortunately, the new version did not appear on at the time I bought this version. I think that the vendor may be trying to sell this out before they tout the new version, through no fault of . At a price of around $10, I chose to keep the older version rather than pay the return postage and have nothing. I also purchased a new version which I really like.
