Frazzled #2: Ordinary Mishaps And Inevitable Catastrophes

Synopsis

The New York Times bestselling Frazzled series continues. Things are looking up for Abbie Wu: this year she'll run for class president and get a brand-new shiny locker. Until she doesn't. In her second tumultuous misadventure, Abbie Wu tackles more unbelievably unfair and calamitous middle school days. From facing locker thieves and battling diabolical cats to having absolutely no idea what to build for her science project, Abbie Wu is still in perpetual crisis. From author and professional doodler Booki Vivat, this second story follows Abbie Wu, your favorite hilariously neurotic middle school girl, as she tries to come up with solutions to what seems to be a series of inevitable catastrophes. Akin to Smile by Raina Telgemeier, Frazzled: Ordinary Mishaps and Inevitable Catastrophes is heavily illustrated, embarrassingly honest, and sure to appeal to anyone hoping to figure out how to survive the ordinary mishaps of middle school.

Now Abbie has to figure out a way to make it all work before her life becomes a total catastrophe!
