Mommy Did Nothing As They Molested Me: A Story Of Abuse (Child Abuse Series Book 2)

Synopsis

Darlene is abused on a daily basis by her biological mother. Then, one day out of the blue, young Darlene is forced to "earn her keep" by parading around naked in front of her mother's friends. She is passed around and molested, her mother never lifting a finger to put a stop to it. This is a short story covering Darlene's abusive upbringing. At her request, all characters have been assigned fictitious names.

Customer Reviews

The story is told in a factual manner. It was almost like reading a police report because the author did not delve deeply into the emotional scars that the molestation must have carved into her psyche. It is written with a flat affect. Perhaps this book was her first attempt at healing herself now that she is an adult. I was looking for a little more. I was hoping to learn how the author was able to put horrific abuse behind her. Her Grandparents did not rescue her from her narcissistic birth mother until she was almost a teenager. The deep scars that continue to color her life in dark colors are not revealed. This prevents the book from helping others who may be looking for guidance after growing up in similar situations. I hope that Crystal is further on the road to healing herself by facing the emotions she appears to be hiding from in this book.

A touching subject, no doubt, but the story seems scattered and patchworked together. Not a bad story, and I don't regret my purchase (a bundle deal) but it seems too short and a bit inauthentic. The ending, however, seems very realistic, and my inner psychologist read it with interest.

I felt so terrible for this woman, having to endure all that she went through. I am thankful my parents were never like that. they were the exact opposite and I relish that I will never be like this woman's mom to my own children. I hope she a.d her husband get to have more kids.#thought-provoking Caution!! If you were abused as a child this book can be very triggering! But with that said, it is also heartbreaking! It will make you want to cry and scream in anger for this poor angel.

TRY TO FORGIVE THOSE ANIMALS FOR YOUR PEACE... THE LORD WILL DEAL WITH THEM... MAY GOD BLESS YOU AND YOURS WITH PEACE AND COMFORTAMEN

The author is trying to speak in the victims' voice. It is a sad story and the victim allowed her experiences to affect her life somewhat negatively. I am glad she was finally able to move in with her grandparents. I will read other writing by the author.

How many children have been subjected to this all too real hell.....

It was very short and the story was rushed. Im sorry this had to happen to this little girl. But as for the book, it could have been better
