Synopsis

In the latter half of 1963, Karyn Kupciet was living in Hollywood while pursuing her one true dream: to become a famous starlet. She was constantly on the lookout for the role that would land her her big break. From an outsider's perspective, Kupciet was well-equipped for and well on her way to stardom. Her life had all the ingredients: she had a wealthy, well-known father, an actor boyfriend whose career was gaining steam, and dark sultry looks that many would have died for. However, behind the scenes, not all was as it seemed.

Customer Reviews

Yes, I obtained this "book" for free through the Kindle Lending Library. Yes, I knew going in that it is short (27 pages). But I was interested because I grew up in Chicago reading her father's newspaper columns and watching him on television. Still, it is so filled with grammatical errors and fact errors that I can't recommend it, even for free.

There is quite a bit of background on Karyn Kupciet as her family was well-known in Chicago. After high school, Karyn studied at Actors Studio and landed some parts in movies and television. However, Karyn's life was complicated by her mother's constant admonitions to remain slim, and Karyn became addicted to diet pills. Little is known of the circumstances of her death other than the cause and manner of death.<sup>12</sup>

This book is interesting, but very short. It did not have a lot of particular information. The book is OK.
