Faith loves her job and her quiet life as a teacher in her small, Amish village. And though she is happy for her sisters and their upcoming weddings, she has wondered when she will find a love of her own. But when the handsome young Tucker Kauffman seems to be interested in courting her, Faith is not convinced. She likes Tucker very much, but she's not sure how he feels about her. Fraught with doubt, Faith is torn between her feelings for Tucker and her fear that they are not returned. And seeing Tucker's interest in another woman only makes her doubts grow stronger. Finally, Faith accepts her love is not in Gott's plan, and she decides to close her heart to Tucker, and look for love elsewhere. But sometimes, Gott's plan is not as clear as we would like and love will always find its way. Find out for just $0.99 or FREE on Kindle Unlimited
