"Amazing illustrations . . . [His] fish shimmer on the pages." — Publishers

Weekly "Tomelleri's illustrations just have to be seen to be believed." — John Gierach, author, Trout Bum "Stunning." — David Allen Sibley, author, The Sibley Guide to Birds "The best fish illustrator I've ever seen. Period." — Gary Soucie, Audubon magazine

Joseph R. Tomelleri is an illustrator whose work has appeared in About Trout, Cutthroat: Native Trout of the West, Fishes of Alabama, and Trout and Salmon of North America. His work is featured in the Trout of North America Eighteen Card Set and the Trout of North America Poster. He lives in Leawood, Kansas.

As a fisheries biologist, I can say with certainty that few artists capture the entire essence of North America's fish as well as Joe. From color, to scale count, and shape he gets them all right. Excellent quality poster.

I have an "interactive bulletin board" outside my classroom and purchased this poster for the bulletin board. The students loved it and it generated a lot of discussion. Many of my students go fishing with their families, so it was wonderful to see them identify the different fish. The pictures are good and I know I will be able to use it in the future. It is a long poster but I was able to accommodate it.

another reviewer indicated it was an odd size which I noticed after I ordered so I was pleasantly surprised it was standard poster size, excellent quality.. very traditional but nice enough to hang in any room, we love it!

Nicely done and it shows fish I'm likely to encounter.

I saw this framed in a doctor's office and looked for it online to give to my 15 yr. old grandson. Delivery was quick and the poster is colorful and interesting. I have yet to get it framed, but very pleased with the purchase.

Exactly what I wanted.

This is an excellent poster. It is very lifelike and not cartoonish like others. It looks great in my living room and helps to identify freshwater gamefish. It's just missing salmon, which we get in the creeks in northwest Indiana from Lake Michigan.

Exactly what was promised.
