Customer Reviews

Wow just wow. After the previous arch of Caina adventures, I was wondering how the author could continue the series. Well J. Moeller did not disappoint. In this book (the start of the Ghost night arch) Caina and Kylon are unsuspectingly set on a course that results in meeting surprising new people and doing what they do best, saving the world and killing baddies as they do it. I can't wait for the next installment Ghost in the Glass already.

I've followed this series from the first, and this is an excellent new set of adventures for Caina and her new husband. And the additional introduction of a family member of Caina's is a plus. I eagerly await the sequel.

CAINA AMALAS is my favorite character of Jonathan Moeller's books. The end of the ghost exile series was wrapped up better than I imagined, but I was sad to see the series end. I was unsure how he could possibly continue Caina's adventures, but found myself pleasantly surprised in the unveiling of the Ghost Night series!

After reading all of the ghost and ghost exile stories, I was afraid that Caina and Kylon would be married and that would be the end of an excellent character. Now that she is married, both characters take on another dimension as they are no longer "alone". This looks to be the start of another great series.

Anything with CAINA IS WORTH READING MORE ADVENTURES IS COMING CAN'T WAIT TO SEE WHATS NEXT FOR HER.
