Lawson Wood has been fortunate to make his passion his career, and has authored and co-authored over 45 books, mainly about the underwater world. He is a founding member of the Marine Conservation Society, and made history by becoming the first person to be a member of the Royal Photographic Society and Fellow of the British Institute of Professional Photographers solely for underwater photography.

I waited more than two months for this book and I am very pleased with it, although some excellent dive sites like Komodo in Indonesia are omitted. But I guess a book like this has its limitations in terms of coverage. Excellent photographs !

Exactly what i wanted for a gift...made really well for years of searching for that Perfect dive!

I bought this for my brother for christmas. He just started snorkeling and scuba diving and I thought this would be a cool gift for him. He loved it, I flipped through it before I gave it to him and the book has a lot of great information and really cool pictures.
